

urban landscape

The B.C. Yukon Chapter of Canada's Children's Wish Foundation hosted a cocktail benefit at Sugar and Sugar. Proceeds from The One Night One Wish shindig, featuring the works of Abbotsford landscape artist and writer Atom Johnson, went towards granting one child a special wish. Recently, the foundation celebrated 11 years, granting 11,000 wishes to children coping with high-risk, life threatening illnesses.

Children Wish Foundation's Susan Steffens with artist and writer Darrel Spent, a.k.a. Atom Johnson, at the charity's One Night One Wish benefit. Several thousand dollars were raised to make a child's wish become reality.