

1. Broadcaster and ultra-funny girl Linda Ungren flew home from L.A. and said she'll stay.
2. Chan Hon Li came all the way from Beijing, and Pamela Cullen Liu all the way from Richmond, to get delayed Mountain show going.
3. Sophie Dupuis and Justin Trudeau extended their honeymoon at Mission Hill.
4. The wedding plans were swamped by December's tsunami, so Janet Yu and Monte Bill Mosher did it on Granville Island.
5. Bare Elegance Medspa director Bob Brulker looked fine dressed alongside Oprah hotelier-turned-Don Lohmberg.
6. Mat Wilcox got the sweetest little shoe-made-of-pure-sugar-at-his-PF-feat's-10th-anniversary-party.
7. Insurance firm boss Dennis Zakovitz mixes Sam Smith and Edith Piaf at Brasilia Party.
8. Pacific Baroque Orchestra leader Marc Desrosière fronted a concert at Julie Marie Sweeney's West Van suburban home.
9. Jack Everett's CinCin restaurant marked 15 food-warrior years on Robson Street.
10. Brothers Damon and Jason Sugar reflected on their sugar-and-sugar-lounge's fortunes.

SOCIETY

VANCOUVER LIFE™

Exotic Brazilian treats, sugar-coated success and a shoe anyone would love to kiss. Plus: A prime minister's son proves his love's a fine vintage. BY MALCOLM PARRY

THE SEPTEMBER AGENDA

What to do this month

SEPTEMBER 24 Shift An evening reception at a Strathcona studio to celebrate the arts and raise funds for the B.C. Cancer Agency, with local artist Joe Serenimo, 38-1220 E. Pender St., 604-229-2244. SEPTEMBER 25 20th Anniversary AIDS Walk for Life Out of those Rockports for this annual stroll through Stanley Park. Upper Sayerly Park, 604-915-9255. SEPTEMBER 30 8th Annual Vancouver Autumn Brewweekend Festival Get your fill of the weekly craft from 35 microbreweries, in support of Boys' and Girls' Clubs. Plaza of Nations, 604-280-4444. Autumnbrewfest.com

SOCIETY

VANCOUVER LIFE™

Exotic Brazilian treats, sugar-coated success and a shoe anyone would love to kiss. Plus: A prime minister's son proves his love's a fine vintage. BY MALCOLM PARRY

10. Brothers Damon and Jason Sugar reflected on their sugar-and-sugar lounge's fortunes.